VOL. CXXXII—No. 277. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1916. PRICE 2 CENTS

NORTON IS NOT LIABLE

Judge Chichester Enters Order Dismissing Suit Against Former Director of Defunct Bank.

Judge Chichester, of Fredericksburg, who presided in the corporation Court of this city during the trial of the case of Howard W. Smith, Receiver of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, vs. C. J. Rixey et al., has entered an order dismissing further proceedings against former Judge J. K. M. Norton, one of the directors of the institution.

Some time after the bank closed its doors and had passed into the hands of receivers, the receiver instituted suit against the directors, it being alleged that they should have exercised closer surveilance over the affairs of the bank. Most of the directors subsequently proposed to the depositors that the former raise a fund of $20,000 to be divided among those having funds on deposit during the latter part of December, 1910, when the bank's doors were closed. Most of those interested agreed to the proposition, the money was placed on deposit and the receivers declared a dividend payable to the depositors. Judge Norton declined to pay any proportion as a director; hence the suit against him was litigated further.

Judge Chichester holds that this compromise and satisfaction set up in the plea between the plaintiff and some of the defendants is a bar to further prosecution of the suit against former Judge Norton. The following is the opinion:

In the suit of Howard W. Smith, Receiver of Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, vs. C. J. Rixey, et als.

Judge R. H. L. Chichester,

This cause came on again to be heard this 23rd day of November, 1916, upon the papers formerly read and the motion of the plaintiff to strike out the plea heretofore filed by J. K. M. Norton, one of the defendants, and was argued by counsel; upon consideration whereof, and the Court being of opinion that the compromise and satisfaction set up in said plea, between the plaintiff and some of the defendants, is a bar to the further prosecution of this suit, against said J. K. M. Norton, It is therefore adjudged, ordered and decreed that the said motion be, and it is overruled; and it appearing from the papers in this cause, and the several reports of the plaintiff, as Receiver, filed, herein, that the plaintiff has compromised settled and received satisfaction, from some of the defendants to this cause, it is further adjudged, ordered and decreed that this suit be and it is dismissed as to the said J. K. M. Norton.

ROUMANIA IN NET

Teuton Forces Closing in on Bucharest From Two Sides.

London, Nov. 24—Two things stand out ominously in an objective contemplation of Roumania's plight as brought about by the capture of Cralova her most vital strategical railway city, and the subsequent operations of Gen. von. Falkenhayn.

First—Slatina, a railway intersection second in importance only to Cralova, from which it lies only thirty miles to the east, is threatened with capture within the next forty-eight hours. With it the entire railway "barrier" to an invasion of Roumania's interior, the road which runs clear through the Wallachia from Rothenthurm to the Danube, is bound to fall into Teuton hands.

Second. The imminence of a crossing of the Danube by Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces with a view to driving on Bucharest from the south while Falkenhayn's deluge pours down upon the kingdom's capital from the north and west.

Either of these two threats of the military situation, if carried out, would definitely seal the doom of Roumania. Both materializing simultaneously, or in quick succession, would bring about the fall of Bucharest before the elapse of another week. What is recorded between the lines rather than in the terms of today's official reports leaves little doubt that the latter case will come to pass.

Russia is reported to have sent reinforcements to the Roumanians.

AGREEMENT REACHED.

Pershing Punitive Expedition Will be Withdrawn Within Forty Days After Settlement.

Atlantic City, Nov. 25.—An agreement was reached between the American and Mexican delegates to the joint conference here yesterday. It provides:

1. For the withdrawal from Mexico of the Pershing punitive expedition within 40 days of the approval of both governments of the agreement The provision is made that the time may be extended if conditions in Northern Mexico are such as to constitute a menace to United States soil. The details of the withdrawal are left to Gen. Pershing.

2. That United States troops thereafter shall patrol their side of the border and Mexican troops theirs in order to guard against raids. Co-operation between both forces in cases of necessity is provided.

A statement was given out by the commission. It says, in part:

"The commission has come to an agreement as to withdrawal of American troops in Mexico and border control which is to go by M. Pani, to Mexico. If it is acceptable the conference will be resumed within two weeks. The troops are to be withdrawn by Gen. Pershing within forty days of the approval of the agreement, but in such manner as will permit the Mexican troops to occupy the evacuated territory, which the Mexicans have agreed to do.

"Should the northern section of Chihuahua be in a state of turmoil such as to threaten our border the American troops may alone or in conjunction with the Mexican troops disperse the marauders, and the time for withdrawal shall be extended by the time necessary for such work.

"The Mexican Commander is to have control of the plan by which occupation of Northern Chihuahua is effected, and Gen. Pershing is to have control of the plan of withdrawal and the right to use the railroad to Juarez if he so desires.

"The agreement distinctly states that each side is to care for its own side of the border, but that this shall not preclude co-operation between the two forcess to preserve peace upon the border."

The American commissioners told their Mexican colleagues that as a matter of national necessity the policy of this government must be to reserve the right to pursue marauders coming from Mexico into the United States so long as conditions in Northern Mexico are in their present abnormal state.

Such pursuit is not, however, to be regarded by Mexico as in any way hostile to the Carranza government, for the marauders are our common enemies.

GIVES SON FOR HUSBAND

Kentucky Mother Surrenders Alleged Murderer As Price of His Father's Freedom.

Jackson, Ky., Nov. 25—Love for her husband proved stronger than maternal love in the case of Mrs. Henry Miller, who yesterday surrendered to the authorities her son Wiley, accused of the assassination of John Spurlock, in Breathitt county several days ago and then demanded the release of her husband who is being held under a charge of complicity in the crime. The conditions under which Mrs. Miller surrendered her son have not yet been met by the authorities.

Since the assassination of Spurlock, Wiley Miller has been hiding in the mountains of Breathitt. He was heavily armed and hopes of his capture had grown dim. Yesterday his mother came to Jackson with the boy and turned him over to the authorities. In doing so she stipulated that her husband be allowed his freedom. The father had been in jail since the killing of Spurlock.

At present five members of the Miller family are being held in custody awaiting examining trial for alleged complicity in the assassination. This is the first case that has come to light in Eastern Kentucky where a mother turned over her son to the law in the hope that her husband might be freed.

PLANS FOR NEW BRIDGE

Residents of Rosslyn Express Fear That Heighth of New Structure May Injure Property.

Revised plans for the construction of the Key Bridge over the Potomac at Georgetown were submitted for approval yesterday to the National Commission of Fine Arts at a meeting in New York.

The entire structure will be of reenforced concrete and will cross the river at a high elevation in five parabolic ribbed arches, with smaller arches on the shore approaches. The middle arch will have a span of 244 feet. The length of the bridge from shore to shore will be about 1050 feet. The width will be sixty feet, and a clearance of seventy-five feet above the water will be allowed under the middle span.

The Alexandria County Monitor say.: Surveys for the new bridge have been made directly through the town of Rosslyn to Murphy and Ames lumber yard with the purpose of straightening the Military road with the approach to the bridge. Plans for the bridge provide for a much higher structure than the old one, and this necessarily means the elevation to the bridge will be higher than the present one and will probably extend beyond the old structure. If this is done there will be a fill on each side. To avoid this situation, the Board of Supervisors of Alexandria County appointed the following committee: Messrs. Walker, Duncan, and Wilbert, and Messrs. Geo. H. Rucker, M. B. Harlow and E. W. Stearns, who with Congressman C. C. Carlin, appeared before the War Department and entered a protest against the plans now contemplated by that department.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Rumors that there was a possibility for some definite negotiations towards peace were discounted yesterday by Lord Robert Cecil, British minister of war trade, who said that "in view of the Belgian deportations and the sinking of hospital ships, any talk of peace at the present time must be futile."

Three women, two sisters and their servant girl, were executed Thursday at El Valle, Mexico, by the Carranzista garrison. The official charge was conspiracy to assassinate Col. Gonzales Diaz, commander of the El Valle garrison. The actual crime, however, was treachery to the Carranza government which had employed them as spies. They "double crossed" the Carranzistas and sold themselves to Pancho Villa, Margarita Acosta, elder of the two sisters, communicated with a lieutenant to whom her sister had confided news of an impending train robbery. She proposed to him the assassination of Col. Diaz, and a revolt of the garrison in favor of Villa. The lieutenant pretended to fall in with her plans but reported the conspiracy to his commanding officer.

A robber entered McDowell's jewelry store at Arkansas City, Kan. shortly before noon yesterday, held up Clarence Mogle, the only clerk in the place, and escaped with $12,000 worth of diamonds after locking the clerk in the vault. The robber, a young man, had been in the store several times in the last three days looking at diamonds, Mogle said. Yesterday he again asked to see some stones and when Mogle brought a tray of diamonds, took them from him at the point of a revolver, forced him into the vault and fled.

It will be well worth seeing by everyone interested in the best pictures of the day.

GREECE ENTERS WAR

Field Marshal Mackensen Believed to Have Crossed the Danube—Roumanians Said to be Retreating.

Athens, Nov. 26—The Greek provisional government, headed by former premier Venizelos, today formally declared war against Bulgaria.

Venizelos established a revolutionary, or "provisional" government of Greece on the Island of Crete some weeks ago. The former premier first clashed with King Constantine because of Venizelos' vigorous proally war views and his insistence that Greece cast her lot against Germany.

At the Greek elections Venizelos apparently obtained support in this position from the people, but failed to move the Greek monarch to any change in his attitude of neutrality The establishment of a Venizelos party, and, finally, of a Venizelos government, with headquarters at Saloniki followed.

London, Nov. 25—The German drive on Bucharest has apparently started.

The Roumanian official statement, detailing an "attempt" to cross the Danube at Simmitza, and the Berlin report that Field Marshall von Mackensen has actually crossed the stream, together with knowledge that the Roumanian line is reformed along the Alt valley, all hinted to military experts here today that forces were being drawn for one of the great military struggles of the Balkan campaign.

The fact that none of the Berlin official statements have made any claims of large captures of men offers hope here that the Roumanians in Little Wallachia—where Berlin reports capture of Orsova and Turnu-Severin—have escaped von Falkenhayn's encircling movement.

The major portion of this Roumanian army threatened by Falkenhayn's circuitous dash has, it is believed here, retired and joined forces in strength along the Alt river.

In the meantime Field Marshal von Mackensen, to whom military critics assign the next step in the Teuonic move at Bucharest is expected to start an offensive movement in Dobrudja.

Alarming Report

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 25—Roosevelt has started a revolution against President Wilson, according to a dispatch printed in "El Democrats," of Chihuahua City.

The dispatch, under a Mexico City date, reads as follows:

"Alarming rumors have been circulated in this city which say that Col. Theodore Roosevelt heads a revolution that has broken out in several States of the American Union with the object of overthrowing President Wilson, who, Roosevelt claims, authorized various electoral frauds in order to triumph in the past election.

"High officials in this city and some diplomats state with confidence that this rumor is a canard of the American yellow press, which is hostile to Wilson. The American Ambassador has telegraphed to Washington to inform himself as to the truth of the report."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mrs. Anna C. Chambers, 48 years old living at 1101 K street northwest, Washington, was knocked down and killed by an automobile truck last night. Mrs. Chambers, who was the widow of Walter B. Chambers, was crossing Tenth street at K street, when she was struck.

The British hospital ship Braemar Castle has been sunk by a mine or torpedo in the Aegean Sea. She was the second hospital ship to be sunk in the Aegean this week, the Britannic having been destroyed on Tuesday.

Ambassador Penfield, at Vienna, cabled the State Department yesterday that Thursday, November 30, has been set as the date for the funeral of the late Emperor Francis Joseph. The message said the new Austro-Hungarian ruler would be called Karl I.

JUVENILE OFFENDERS

Leonard Crowder, aged 10, of Lynn, Mass., is wearing an exceedingly sore right arm and an angelic face at present. The arm is wrapped in bandages and the face in smiles. Young Crowder threw 1,000 stones in a gravel pit, while Probation Officer Farmer watched him. He had been sentenced to the performance for throwing a stone at a little girl, Crowder started his task with considerable vigor and got away with twenty-five stones without any trouble Then he admitted he had something of a job on his hands. He began to use an underhand motion, throwing at a rock and a tin can. Neither mark was hit often. When the youth reached 400 he wanted to quit. At 925, with tears rolling down his face, he begged to be allowed to stop, declaring he never would throw another stone. Urged on by his playmates, he staggered through the final seventy-five, and then was taken home, exhausted, where his arm was wrapped in bandages.

As was stated in the Gazette recently, Alexandria now has probation officers, who will be given charge of mischievous boys in the future. It would be well for those interested to take note of this, as many youngsters are brought before the Police Court during the year. They are arraigned generally for mischievous conduct, but during the past few months serious charges have been brought against some, and in a few cases boys have been turned over to the State Board of Charities and Correction.

It is hoped our probation officers will not be compelled at any time to use drastic measures with the young and that the latter may not in future annoy their elders, and cause the latter to resort to the law.

GREECE A BELLIGERENT.

Another nation has gone to war. The country of Pericles has taken up arms against Bulgaria. The Balkan States have been the cause of much bloodshed in the past few years. Servia, one of the group, the part of the world known as Macedonia in the days of Phillip and his son Alexander, played a prominent part in the beginning of the present great conflict. Servia, Rumania and Bulgaria have for some time been on the fighting lines, and now Greece has decided to draw the sword.

Truly, "wars and rumors of war," are "causing men's hearts to fail them concerning those things which are coming upon the world. "He who uttered these words is the Prince of Peace, whose birth we will celebrate one month from today.

Next Thursday the people of this country will be called upon to turn their souls to the bountiful Giver of all and to express thanks that our country is not among the warring nations of the earth. Surely we have much for which to be thankful, especially when we recall the fact that the same able hand which has steered us clear of the rocks during the past four years has been called by the voice of the people to remain at his post in these troublous times.

ECHO OF CAPITOL ACCIDENT.

A. B. Duesberry, former high constable of Richmond, died Thursday night at his home in that city, aged 71. Mr. Duesberry was injured in the state capitol disaster in the early part of the year 1870, and had been a cripple ever since. He was also severely hurt on the head.

The accident referred to above put crape upon one door knob in Alexandria, Anthony T. Brewis, a prominent merchant of this city and at one time a member of the Board of Aldermen, having been killed. George W. Brent, father of S. G. Brent, one of the foremost lawyers of Alexandria at that time, had one of his legs broken in the smash. The late General M. D. Corse, was in the mass of humanity which went down with the floor of the court room of the Capitol, but who escaped serious injury from the dust and splinters.

There had previously been an election for Mayor of Richmond, and both candidates claimed to have been elected, and the case was to be decided by the court that day. The Legislature was in session at the time and a large crowd had gathered on the floor of the court room. The gallery was also densely packed, so much so that the supports gave way and precipitated the crowd upon the floor of the court room. That in turn gave way and the entire mass of humanity went down with a crash into the cellar below, which caused a thick cloud of dust to burst from the windows of the Capitol building, which started an alarm of fire. It was several minutes before the crowd which gathered knew what had happened. The work of rescue was started, and the groans of the dying and injured rent the air. The work of rescue was slow, as the broken planks and splinters were difficult to remove. A splinter had penetrated through the neck of Mr. Brewis and he had been dead some time before his body was reached.

THE SECOND ADVENT.

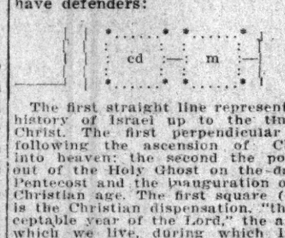
Adventist preachers were synchronous with Paul, he being among the first. The Author of Christianity dwelt much upon the imminence of His second coming, and He never uttered a prophecy during his short earthly career which could not have been fulfilled in the generation he found upon the earth. The early disciples were spurred in their labors by the earnest hope that their Master might return in their day. Somebody who has taken the trouble to ascertain the fact states that the second advent is referred to directly or indirectly over two hundred times in the New Testament, an average of every twenty-fifth verse.

Advent preachers and sects have been in the world during the entire history of the church. Unfortunately for the doctrine, the advocates generally blend this truth with other beliefs which tend to throw into eclipse the doctrine of the second advent.

Attempts have recently been made in Alexandria to form adventist congregations, but the labors of those so engaged have not, so far, brought forth the desired fruits.

It is a subject which requires considerable study and thought, as well as familarity with the entire Bible.

The writer published the following in the Gazette in the early part of the year 1881, at which time much Bible study concerning the second advent was in evidence. This diagram may aid the reader who desires to study a subject which will always have defenders:



The first straight line represents the history of Israel up to the time of Christ. The first perpendicular line following the ascension of Christ into heaven; the second the pouring out of the Holy Ghost on the day of Pentecost and the inauguration of the Christian age. The first square (c. d.) is the Christian dispensation, "the acceptable year of the Lord," the age in which we live, during which Israel, though preserved as a nation is set aside and, Gentiles called to become the Bride of the Lamb, and Jerusalem "trodden down of the Gentiles, until the (these) times of the Gentiles be fulfiled." When this divine economy is brought to a close (and it has already extended through a longer period by several centuries than any previous dispensation) Christ will descend from heaven, resurrect his sleeping saints of all denominations and translate the living ones; then "will many seek to enter in and shall not be able when once the Master of the House shall rise up and shut to the door." The horiontal line next following denotes "the day of vengeance of our God," during which iniquity will abound, and famines, pestilences, wars and rumors of war will become universal, men's hearts will be failing them for fear of those things which are coming upon the earth, while vials of wrath will be poured out from an outraged heaven. At this period the Jews are supposed to be in their own land, (and Bible students are now watching the present Zionist movement), when the minute description in the 24th and 25th chapters of Matthew and various places in the O'd Testament of Israel's time of trouble and the tribulations upon the world in general will be fulfilled. When "the mystery of iniquity" shall be fully ripe and at the darkest hour of Israel's history shall their previously rejected Messiah appear in His glory and heavenly retinue, with those resurrected and translated at His first coming and fight against the nations which will then be arrayed against Jerusalem; the world will then be purged of all iniquity, and the Messianic reign inaugurated, that kingdom of heaven which we have prayed for so long. The second square (m) represents the Millenium—that glorious age sighed for by prophets and poets —when "the word of the Lord shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea;" when men "shall beat their swords into plough shares and their spears into pruning hooks," and "learn war no more;" the duration of human life will then be as long as that of the antediluvians. (Isaiah lxv.) When the thousand years are finished we are told (Rev. xx) that Satan will be loosed from his prison for a little season (represented by the short line following the second square) and the earth will once more become corrupt, which will be terminated by the destruction of all the ungodly hosts and followed by the general judgment in which the sea gives up its dead and the great white throne appears. The perpendicular line at the end of the diagram, indicates eternity, when the new heavens and earth appear and the New Jerusalem will come down from God, as described in the latter part of the book of Revelation.

A study of the theories advanced above show that they are entirely unsectarian; hence there is no need of new church congregations in order to set them forth. It is a matter which can be pondered over by Catholics, Protestants and Jews, as all can be interested without unchurching themselves.

HELD ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Evidence is Heard in Case Against M. H. Hatcher, Business Man of Danville.

Danville, Nov. 25.—M. H. Hatcher, a local business man, charged with storing liquor, was held for the grand jury under $500 bond Thursday morning by Mayor Wooding, after a hearing. A large crowd was present. In the courtroom were ministers and laymen who fought for prohibition, and a delegation of eight Women's Christian Temperance Union workers.

On the stand, Hatcher denied knowledge of 56 gallons of whisky said to have been found in an outhouse on his premises, 40 feet from his back door. The police said they found the liquor on Friday night. On Friday morning, Hatcher asserted, it was not there. Sixteen gallons of whisky shipped from Richmond, found in Mr. Hatcher's home, was for private consumption, he stated.

Joe Carver, a negro stableboy, employed by Hatcher, and who was arrested on Friday night charged with selling the whisky found in the outhouse, has not been seen since. Hatcher went on his bond for $100 on the night of his arrest.

John D. Archbold, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, was operated upon for appendicitis Thursday night at his home in New York.

Every priest ordained in his diocese will be compelled to take a five year abstinence pledge, according to Archbishop G. W. Mundelein, of the Roman Catholic Church, in Chicago yesterday. Already he has put that rule into effect, he said. "I would not be true to my position and my convictions if I did not take a stand in favor of total abstinence," said the archbishop.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for seven years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day. N. C. 128

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY.

Alexandria People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Alexandria testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Alexandria who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Lest any sufferer doubt this evidence of merit, we produce confirmed proof —statements from Alexandria people who again endorse Doan's Kidney Pills—confirm their former testimony. Here's an Alexandria case:

H. C. Smith, tailor 919 1-2 King street, Alexandria, says: "I can't begin to describe the agony I suffered with my back. It was impossible for me to find a cure until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me in less than a month and today, I am as free from backache as if I had never had it." (Statement given November 3, 1910)

On April 10, 1915, Mr. Smith said: "I still consider Doan's Kidney Pills a very fine medicine for kidney trouble and never hesitate to recommend them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Smith has twice pugyiclq recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
